

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

The God of all comfort comforts us in our times of despair and grief and then calls us to pass it on to others in their time of need. The news of last Sunday's tragedy in our community swept the nation. And while the coverage will move on, the grieving families will still be dealing with this trauma. Each of us knows someone who has been directly impacted. Let us come alongside them and help carry this burden. That is what it means to comfort.

Our morning series brings Scriptural truth and practical application for dealing with real life family issues. Our faith and love for God and others grows and matures. But it doesn't do this automatically. We have to live it and choose it daily.

Of course one of the best choices you can make is to make sure your child or grandchild and their friends are attending our Vacation Bible School this week. Now more than ever they need The Good News that will anchor their life forever.

Come now is the time to worship.

I love you in the Lord,
Bro Greg

Brothers and sisters,

A.W. Tozer once wrote, "If you do not worship God seven days a week, you do not worship Him on one day a week. There is no such thing known in heaven as Sunday worship unless it is accompanied by Monday worship and Tuesday worship and so on." What a powerful thought for the people of God. I believe it is true, though. Many enter into the church on Sunday morning expecting that all of their worship needs will be met in a singular service. There are 10,080 minutes in a week. Less than 75 of those minutes are spent together with the church family in corporate worship. Our God deserves much more praise than this.

With the amount of media at our disposal it isn't hard to find a medium by which you can increase your worship time throughout the week. The internet, radio, and television can be great resources for us in between Sundays. If you would like help finding Christ-centered broadcasts, recordings, or online resources, please contact me at 601.757.5516. I would love to help.

I also want to mention the need for Media Ministry Volunteers. FBC has a tremendous ministry to our community through radio and television. We will soon be live streaming our services as well. We need audio, lighting, and video technicians who can learn to operate cameras, lighting systems, and soundboards. If you are interested in learning more go to the Media Ministries page on our website at www.fcbrookhaven.org.

I love you all more than you know,
Pastor Nick
